

VACRO Information Sessions 2010

OVERVIEW

VACRO holds free information sessions for families, workers and community members in relation to the criminal justice system.

SESSION

The How and Why of Prisoner Voting

- Human Rights Legal Resource Centre: Talking about winning prisoners the right to vote at the High Court in 2007, and why this is important for the 2 elections this year.
- The Victorian Electoral Commission and Australian Electoral Commission: Talk about who will be eligible to vote and how they are approaching Victorian prisons to engage prisoners in the upcoming election.
 - Practical tips for families and workers to get their family member/client to vote whilst in prison

DATE

Tuesday June 22nd 3-4pm

NB: Please be there at least 10minutes before the session starts

LOCATION

Victorian Electoral Commission

Level 8, 505 Little Collins St, Melbourne (between William and King St)

Public Transport: Closest station is Southern Cross Station (or Flagstaff)

Car parking: Street Parking (metered)

BOOKING

Name/s: _____

Organisation (if applicable): _____ Role _____

Telephone: _____ Email: _____

Where did you hear about the session: _____

Fax to (03) 9602 2355 or Email info@vacro.org.au

Call 9605 1900 for any enquiries.

NB: Spaces are limited

Established 1872